Part III: All In
Shay Robbins

1. In general, are you by nature an all or nothing personality? What are other options?
2. What have you broken (a body part or some significant inanimate object) and how did it happen?
3. Why would anyone approach God with caution rather than going “all in”?
4. What areas of your life are you holding back from God?
5. Hebrews 2:1 says, “We must pay careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.”
 - *What’s the “therefore there for”? Read what has gone before these verses, Hebrews 1:18-24, and explain the connection.
 - *What causes us to drift away?
 - *What specific things can we do in order to stay the course rather than drift away?
 - * How is or how has God called you back to himself? Or how is God pursuing you?
 - *What life experiences have caused you to feel separated from God?
6. Who do you know who has lived a life that appears to be “all in.”? What behaviors make this evident?
7. The verses to the church at Laodicea found in Revelation 3:15-16 say, “I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot or cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth.”
 - *Read the words to this church that come a few verses later in 3:19-20. How do they inform the fearful words in 15 and 16?
 - *In this context what does “cold” and “hot” mean?
 - *What would a lukewarm Christian look like? (These words were written to the church.)
 - *Why is being “lukewarm” a dangerous place to live?
8. How has God been faithful to take care of you?
9. Ephesians 2:17-19 says, “He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.”
 - *Jesus lived, spoke, and died to rise again that everyone might have peace. How did he go “all in”?

*What keeps us from going “all in”?
