

June 24, 2018
Series: Hello Summer
Five Marks of Spiritual Maturity
Shay Robbins

1. I Corinthians 13:12 says, “For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully just as I also have been fully known.”

*We may not be “fully” known by anyone on earth, maybe even ourselves. How does it make you feel to think God fully knows you?

*What do you think we see “dimly”?

*What do you long to know fully when you see him “face to face”?

2. What were the 4 immature things Shay confessed? (The flagpole, fueling up distracted, the 10-point deer that got away, and moving home at 25)

3. What is one of the stupidest things you have done in your immaturity?

4. Have you ever had to walk with God through suffering? Did you grow closer to God?

5. What goals have you set and met? Did meeting the goal require commitment and effort? And was the goal worth the effort?

6. What were the five marks of Christian maturity Shay listed? (self-feeder, Biblical worldview, suffering well, free from anxiety, practicing continual repentance)

7. What would you add to a list of the marks of Christian maturity?

8. Is your relationship with God dependent on others or independent of others?

9. How are belief systems formed? (news, upbringing, friends, books, experiences, Bible, etc.)

10. Can Christians have biblical world views that differ? Can Christians derive their belief system on the Word of God yet disagree on how to interpret what they read?

11. What are the ten attributes Shay put on a slide of those who suffers full of faith? (perseverance, hope, endurance, peace, proven character, joy, love/comfort, praise/glory)

12. Have you watched someone suffer who was full of faith? What did you see and how did it affect you?

13. What do you do when you’re anxious or afraid? What does scripture encourage us to do? (take our cares to God, and give thanks.)

14. How have you felt the Spirit move in your life when you have confessed your sins?