The flogging and crucifixion of Jesus was raw, demeaning, and excruciatingly painful. Yet, without it, we would be hopelessly, eternally separated from God. Which of Jesus's seven statements from the cross impacted you most on Sunday?

In order, read Luke 23:32-38, John 19:17-18, Luke 23:39-43, John 19:25-27, Matthew 27:45-46, John 19:28-30, Luke 23:44-46

What the seven statements from the cross say about Jesus are listed below. You will likely not have time to cover all the statements thoroughly. Discuss at least the first two statements and save time for statement seven at the end.

1. Jesus intercedes for us—Luke 23:32-34, Romans 8:34
2. Jesus prepares a place for us—Luke 23:39-43, John 14:3
In the video shown Sunday, Alistair Begg asks, “If you were to die tonight and you were getting entry into heaven, what would you say?” If you answer that in the first person, we’ve immediately gone wrong... ‘The Man on the middle cross said I can come.’” Have you always understood that salvation is a result of faith alone in Christ alone?
3. Jesus cares for us—John 19:25-27
4. Jesus carried the weight of our sin—Matthew 27:45-46, 2 Corinthians 5:21
5. Jesus understands our weakness—John 19:28-29, Hebrews 4:15
6. Jesus fulfilled every prophecy of Scripture and the will of His Father—John 19:30
7. Jesus gives us access to the Father—Luke 23:44-46, Romans 5:8, 1 Peter 2:24

Read 1 John 5:13

Are you in the 4th category of people R.C. Sproul mentions, those who are saved and know it? If not, the Man on the middle cross invites you to be with Him for eternity.

As you close, pray for each other and for the many unsaved who will attend services on Easter, that they may understand Jesus invites them to be with Him for eternity. Also, pray for those who are preparing to present the Gospel in the services, including the children's services.
