Part 2 – Two Combined Influences Are Better Than One
March 10, 2024

Are there children in your life that you feel a responsibility to influence in a Godly way? What are some of the victories you have experienced?

Read 1 Corinthians 13:11 and Proverbs 23:24-25

What are some of the common pitfalls that get in the way of building responsibility in a child? What are some practical ways you can encourage a child toward responsibility?

Divorce can make it difficult to parent with a united vision. Is there someone in your life that you could support as they learn to parent after divorce? Share some ways you can encourage them and their children.

Read Ephesians 6:4 and Psalm 78:5-7

A parent submitted this question. “How do I find the balance between showing my children grace and understanding and trying to stay consistent to raise obedient followers of Christ?” How would you answer this question?

What significance does fun have in building a Godly family? Is this a new concept for you?

If you were to submit a parenting (or grandparenting) question for Ted to answer, what would it be?

End your time by praying for Godly influences in the lives of the children you care about and asking God to show you how you can be a positive influence. Pray for all the parents trying to do their best in a difficult culture and ask God to give them wisdom and resolve to lead their kids in ways that honor Him. Pray for protection against evil and for opportunity to encourage and support the kids and parents in your circle.
